2 July 2012

Dear Parents

The London 2012 Education team have allocated us some free tickets to Olympic events. They are

- 25 tickets to the England v Cameroon women's football match at the Millennium Stadium, Cardiff, on 28 July
- 3 tickets + travelcards to the Paralympic Athletics at the Olympic Stadium, London, on 5 September

I think the fairest way of distributing them is by randomly drawing the names of interested people. If you want to, please return either or both of the slips below. For safety reasons we insist on one or two adults to accompany every one or two children. However, the school accepts no liability for these events. At least one of the children must be a current Loders pupil or Year 6 leaver. As Loders and Sir John Colfox schools both start on 6 Sept, there is no apparent conflict of dates.

We'll have two separate draws on Friday 13 July, first for the Paralympics, then for the England football. The Paralympic ticket winners will not be entered into the football draw. I hope this sounds fair!! Please return the reply slip(s) by Thursday 12 July.

Yours sincerely

Mike Kite and Shirley Gibbs
